Conference at Lincoln Held to Express Views on Situation.

TO MAINTAIN ORGANIZATION

Judge Wray of York Outlines Host of Policies Which He Declares the Progressives Demand in Their Platform.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Dec. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Prohibition, a constitutional convention, single tax, recall both of elective officials and judicial decisions, equal suffrage, short ballot, 20 per cent reduction in freight rates, public ownership of all utilities and division of the state supreme court were just a few of the things which will go into the bull moose platform if Judge Arthur Wray of York is nominated for governor by that party next year, according to an address delivered today at a conference of bull moose leaders at the Lindell hotel.

The conference was called a few days ago in order to confer with Judge Wray and among those present from out of town were: C. H. Bluma, Wahoo; F. B. Tipton, Newark; S. S. Stewart, Tecumseh; H. R. Turner and J. W. Cline, Fremont; L. C. Larson, Grand Island; J. P. Gibbons, Kearney. Omaha bull moose were not in the conference.

Notes from Beatrice and Gage County

BEATRICE, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the Commercial club Thursday evening arrangements were made for a six-day chautauqua in the fore part of August. The local committee is to furnish the grounds and guarantee the sale of $600 worth of season tickets. After the guarantee is finished, $300 goes to supply the band, and proceeds over $1,000 are to be divided between the committee and the bureau.

At a meeting of the Commercial club directors Thursday night the books of former Secretary Paul Meekins were audited and found to be in good shape. T. R. Allen, the new secretary, has charge, and the directors discussed plans for the year's work. Dr. G. H. Brash presented the proposition of providing training quarters for the Omaha league ball team during spring practice, but no action was taken because Beatrice is without proper hotel facilities.

SHARP JOLTED IN ELECTION

President of Lincoln Traction Reduced in Position.

HEADS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Separated from Seven Thousand Dollars Year and W. H. Ferguson Elected in Place at Reduced Stipend.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Dec. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—The warring factions of the Lincoln Traction company held an election today, resulting in the ousting of President W. E. Sharp and the election of W. H. Ferguson of Lincoln to the place.

The election was a sort of compromise, the new president being a member of the Sharp faction, while Sharp was made president of the board of directors. All other officers are Scudder men, as follows:
J. H. Bramlett, vice president and general manager.
J. H. Humpal, secretary.
S. H. Burdham, treasurer.
O. J. Shaw, assistant secretary.

Thirty Thousand Loss at Crawford

CRAWFORD, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—Early yesterday fire in the three-story brick building known as the Syndicate block, gutted the entire building and caused a loss of $30,000.

The ground floors were occupied by the First National bank and the S. M. Knapp Dry Goods and Grocery company. The city council and the water commissioner also occupied offices on the ground floor, while the second and third floors were used as a rooming house. The opera house was also on the second floor.

The damage to the building is estimated at $5,000, insurance, $5,000. The S. M. Knapp company was the heaviest loser, the damage to their dry goods and groceries being due chiefly to smoke and water and aggregating a loss of $18,000, with insurance of $9,000.

The First National bank suffered a small loss, their fireproof vault, containing all valuables, remaining intact. The fire started in the rear of the stage in the opera house.

Notes from Stella.

STELLA, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—Lewis M. Swan of Stella, Neb., who died at Peru this week, and was brought to Stella for burial, was one of the oldest settlers in Nebraska. He was born in Bureau county, Illinois; came from there to Atchison county, Missouri. Previous to 1892 Mr. Swan was engaged in farming near Peru, and in that year went into the grain warehouse at that place, remaining for five years. He came to Stella when the town was started.

J. R. Johnson of Stella has traded his Kinkaid homestead in Banner county to Frank Woodward of Nemaha for the hotel in Nehawka and twenty acres of unimproved land east of Shubert, valued at $200 an acre. Mr. Johnson will take possession March 1.

Paul W. Karr, cashier of the bank at Brownville, and Miss Jessie Speace will be married at the home of her father, J. S. Speace, in Falls City on Christmas day. Mrs. Leon Shubert and Miss Pearl Shubert each gave social functions at their homes in Shubert to honor Miss Speace.

GRAND ISLAND COMMERCIAL CLUB HAS A GOOD YEAR

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—The Commercial club will with this month close its second year as an organization with a paid secretary. It will have a balance in the treasury and it is the conviction of the inside workers that A. M. Conners, the efficient secretary, will be retained another year. At no time, it is believed, has the city made greater progress in material improvements than in the last two years, and with much of it the club was actively connected, as, for instance, the new Young Men's Christian association building, the electrolux system, the new brewery and street paving. The club now has a committee out on a new Union Pacific depot project and contemplates taking up a tri-county fair proposition.

Jefferson County Farmer Injured.
FAIRBURY, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—Dick George, living near Gladstone in this county, had his left arm nearly severed off while operating a circular wood saw. John Morrison, another Jefferson county farmer living near Endicott, lost several fingers while operating a corn chopper.

Masons Choose Officers.
PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—Nebraska chapter No. 31, Royal Arch Masons, have elected the following named officers: Exalted high priest, George W. Thomas; king, William A. Robertson; scribe, William J. Streight; treasurer, Alfred W. White; secretary, James G. Maury.

Cupid Busy at Fairbury.
FAIRBURY, Neb., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—County Judge C. C. Boyle has issued marriage licenses to the following parties: Claude Myers and Delphia Stenwalt; Albert C. Waruke and Emma F. Marachman; Thomas K. Koop and Leslie Klassen; Chester Hatfield and Mabel Lindell.

Legion of the Cross Church at Upland

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Dec. 19.—(Special.)—The Legion of the Cross is the name of a new church organization filing articles of incorporation with the secretary of state today. The organization has headquarters at Upland, in Franklin county, and while it has no capital stock, it may secure funds up to $200,000.

The objects of the organization are to bring about a better spirit of fellowship among the church membership and among the pastors and also to secure pledges against the use of tobacco. L. M. Hansen, James N. Christensen and Henry Anderson sign their names to the articles of incorporation.

The Home Investment company of Lincoln filed articles of incorporation today with the secretary of state. The capital stock is placed at $25,000 and the incorporators are S. Otis Hahn, Marguerite E. Hahn, Mary E. Brown and E. W. Brown.
